FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS FOR CREDIT UNIONS

The financial strength of your credit union is dependent on the strength of your membership.

In addition to the valuable financial services you provide, it's important to provide resources to help your members enhance their financial capability.

Mapping Your Future Financial Solutions is an easy-to-use program, which includes dedicated member support and comprehensive financial resources.

Our resources can be tailored to complement and supplement your existing member services.

Mapping Your Future will deliver the financial solutions and guidance your members need, when they need it, and how they want it.

Comprehensive financial counseling has been shown to help consumers.*

- Reduce debt
- Reduce missed payments
- Improve their credit profile
- Manage money with increased confidence

Mapping Your Future Financial Solutions includes:

Unparalleled Experience

Mapping Your Future Financial Solutions, powered by Money Management International (MMI), is backed by nearly 60 years of experience in the financial education field.

One-on-One Counseling

Personal and confidential counseling sessions are available in English and Spanish, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Comprehensive Counseling Expertise

Our broad range of counseling services goes beyond debt and budget counseling, which includes housing and student loan counseling, credit report and score reviews and more.

Personalized Content and Interactive Tools

Members have access to a mobile-friendly website, branded with your credit union logo and filled with engaging, comprehensive educational content.

Your credit union can customize content to meet specific financial education needs of your members.

Partnership Support

A dedicated program coordinator and implementation and support team ensure your credit union maximizes member engagement and success.

Money-Saving Debt Management Plans

When appropriate, counselors may recommend a Debt Management Plan (DMP). MMI credit counselors work with creditors on behalf of your members to lower interest rates, reduce monthly payments, waive late fees and consolidate debts into one convenient payment.

Engaging Communications

Members receive important tips, reminders and other valuable content in a mobile-friendly newsletter sent via email. Your members can also view new articles online every week or access hundreds of articles in the online library.

Skilled Educators and Trainers

Educational seminars and webinars can be provided directly to your members, while train-the-trainer courses and professionally produced resources complement and reinforce your existing financial education efforts.

Measurable Results

Mapping Your Future Financial Solutions program produces comprehensive usage reports, measuring member engagement in both online and one-on-one counseling resources.
